

FCA Collaboratory Webinar Chat 5-18-23

- Bob Jones to Everyone: Place your questions in the chat and we will take them up in the Q & A!
- Bob Jones to Everyone: <https://Futuremakerscoalition.com>
- Kristin Lortie: What is the primary funding source for Collaboratory?
- Kristin Lortie: What are some of key collaborations that have occurred in the first 2 years? How do you measure and document progress toward your goal?
- Sarah Owen: We measure all of work against the UNs SDGs
- Damon Isiah Turner: Is Bright Community Trust not Fiscally Sponsored, then? It is solely a collaborative?
- Bola Adeshina: It sounds like Collaboratory is a Think Tank? What is your Demographic diversity percentages for your Board?
- Sarah Owen: Love the comment about the think tank- that would be fun, but we are coordinators- the community is the think tank- 10s of thousands of innovators and problem solvers- we build networks that bring them together.
- Sarah Owen: We are actively training coordinators, facilitating meetings, collecting data and building the dashboards and communication tools to keep the region informed
- Bola Adeshina: Reacted to "We measure all of wo..." with 🙏
- Damon Isiah Turner to Everyone: Are there any particular challenges around the lobbying aspect of Collaboratory and engaging with both the legislature and local government from a "non-partisan" perspective relative to the particular policy issue (housing) - within a very partisan political environment? Or does your role as a collaborative organization offset any potential partisanship?
- Kristin Lortie: I am a community advocate in another Florida county (Brevard County). What can other counties learn from your efforts to apply to our local areas?
- Jessica Turner: Thank you for your very thoughtful questions
- James Murley to Everyone: Very informative , have you shared with The Miami Foundation?

- Noelle Casagrande: Replying to "It sounds like Coll..."
