

FLORIDA
CIVIC ADVANCE

FCA Third Thursday Webinars 2023

Engaging Youth in Civic Health

CAPE (Community Action Projects for the Environment)

UF-IFAS/ 4-H

Thursday July 20

12-1 pm ET

UF IFAS
UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

Community Action Projects for the Environment (CAPE) helps youth engage in local civic and environmental issues, CAPE is designed for 4-H clubs and has been used effectively by teachers and leaders of clubs, ages 11 to 18.

Alachua County 4-H and University of Florida IFAS conducted a CAPE program in Gainesville. This Webinar will feature their Gainesville Canopy Tree project and the CAPE youth program.

Moderator:

Bob Jones, FCA Board

Presenters

Martha Monroe, Professor,
Environmental Education,
University of Florida

Megan Ennes, Director UF
Thompson Earth Systems
Institute

Sarah Wolking UF Law, Senior
Lecturer

Carolyn Wolking, Florida 4-H
State Council President (2022-23)

Benjamin Wolking, incoming freshman, Bates College